

Chicago Sky Black History Creative Expression Contest

Instructions, Rules & Restrictions

- Chicago Sky Black History Creative Expression Contest is for Chicagoland elementary, middle and high school students (Kinder -12th grade)
- Before submitting your expression, students must fill out an entry form on www.ChicagoSky.net
 - Students should include one (1) teacher/class on entry form
- Students must submit one (1) creative expression: written essay, spoken word, poetry, art (with a caption explanation), music, dance (video, with explanation), etc. to Jordan Johnson at jjohnson@chicagosky.net or via social media using #MyBHE on Twitter, Instagram or on the Chicago Sky Facebook wall
 - Creative submissions should be about your favorite influential African American individual/icon, how they relate to positive Black History/Black Culture and how this person inspires you to live out your dreams
 - Twitter- @wnbachicagosky Instagram- @chicagosky Facebook- Official Chicago Sky
- Submissions will be judged by Sky player Tamera Young on a 30 point scale based on creativity (10 points), accurate explanations of the contest topic (10 points) and quality (10 points)
- There will be three (3) winners: one elementary (Kinder -5th grade), one middle school (6th-8th), and one high school (9th-12th) winner
- Winners receive:
 - A Chicago Sky game experience at Allstate Arena with opportunity to participate in high five tunnel
 - A tour for you, your teacher and classmates at the DuSable African American History Museum with Chicago Sky forward Tamera Young & Sky Guy
 - A $500 gift card for school supplies supplied by Sam's Club & Sky Cares Foundation
- Please limit video submissions to two (2) minute maximum. Videos may be submitted with entry form by providing the YouTube URL
- All art entries (drawings or paintings) should have a caption explaining the art piece on the contest topic
- Deadline for all submissions is Friday, February 19 by 5pm CST

If you have any questions or concerns regarding the Chicago Sky Black History Creative Expression Contest please contact Jordan Johnson at 312.994.5999 or jjohnson@chicagosky.net.